Date: Friday 3rd April 2020

Part 1: Answer the questions with There is… and There are… .

Ex. How many pencils are there?   How many pencils are there?
 There are two pencils.   There is one pencil.

1. How many stars are there?

 There are four stars.

2. How many cats are there?

 There is one cat.

3. How many rulers are there?

 There are two rulers.

4. How many triangles are there?

 There is one triangle.

5. How many elephants are there?

 There are three elephants.

Part 2 : Use How many…? to write questions and then answer them.

Ex. _____?

| How many chairs are there? |

| There is one chair. |
_____

1. How many rubbers/erasers are there?

   There are two rubbers/erasers.

2. How many circles are there?

   There are three circles.

3. How many clouds are there?

   There are four clouds.

4. How many tables are there?

   There are two tables.

5. How many pencil cases are there?

   There is one pencil case.

Prepared by: The English Department