The Jungle Book

The story begins in a jungle where Mowgli and Baloo live. There are different types of animals which live in the jungle. There are tigers, birds, wolves, and monkeys. Mowgli and Baloo are best friends. They play together all day long. They walk on the tree branches. Swim in the lake. They sleep under trees or sometimes in front of caves. They climb up and down trees to get something to eat. They sit between trees and flowers. They run near the bank of the river. They lay down next to each other and rest. Mowgli and Baloo are very happy.
